MANNINGTON LAMINATE CONTINUES TO BE A LEADER IN STYLE AND DESIGN

January 28, 2008 -- This spring, the new looks in Mannington Laminate's "Revolutions" collection span a wide range of styles, from a contemporary tile to the rustic look of a hand-planed plank edge. Inspired by popular trends in real hardwood and tile, the new patterns boast of designs that are in touch with the desires of today's consumer.

Revolutions Tile

Venicia, which adopts the visual of a 12"x24" rectified tile with embossed in register grout lines, is Mannington's version of one of the hottest trends in porcelain -- marble visuals with a seamless look. Fresh and modern, Venicia features OpticEdge - a new, exclusive technology that provides the industry's most advanced design and beveling capabilities. This striking pattern is available in three colors, Alabaster, Graphite, and Baked Clay.

Revolutions Plank

For an heirloom-quality look with the performance of modern laminate, Time Crafted Maple offers the most unique, and most realistic, hardwood visual in the laminate category today. Thanks to the next generation in flooring technology, Mannington has been able to create a “truly irregular” bevel with new patent pending technology. Adding warmth and appeal to any home, and accurate to its name, Time Crafted Maple exhibits the essence of beautifully age-worn hardwood. It’s is available in four inspired colors: Saddle, Dried Tobacco, Weathered Ash, and Golden Nugget.

Venicia and Time Crafted Maple will be available at a fine flooring retailers in April 2008.

All Mannington Laminate is manufactured in the United States.
